Pa Newc Observes

Curb traffic light at Butler avenue and Ray street was placed in operation today, according to Rex Hixson. The new traffic lights are being placed on the curbs because of a state highway ruling.

Pedestrians on the Diamond late yesterday afternoon had a good time listening to an argument between a city bus driver and a truck driver, over a traffic tangle. It appeared as though the truck driver stopped in front of the bus, in front of the Penn Power company without giving any signal, and the bus had to swerve sharply to avoid a collision. In the resulting argument, the truck driver stepped into the bus, and the operator drove off with him, leaving the truck parked out in the street.

Heat felt good in a number of city buses again this morning, with the dropping of the temperature to a low mark for this time of the year. Topcoats were called out in many instances. Smoke was seen curling from many chimneys about the city.

City Forester Owen P. Fox and his workmen were busily engaged Tuesday afternoon in trimming the Diamond plot of grass and shrubbery, getting the area in tip-top shape for the Sesqui celebration, which is just about five weeks (Continued on Page Two)

Coal Parley Negotiations Come To Halt

Collapse Occurs About 24
Hours After Conference
Got Under Way

SEEK TO COMPEL PARLEY RESUMPTION (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—The nation-wide soft coal wage conference collapsed today in a disagreement between John L. Lewis and the operators over admission of the Southern Coal Producers association to the 1948 contract bargaining parley.

Injunction Is Sought
WASHINGTON, May 19.—The soft coal wage negotiations collapsed today and the government immediately was asked to obtain a court injunction to compel John L. Lewis to bargain on a new 1948 mine contract.

The wage conference broke up about 24 hours after it began on Lewis' refusal to allow the Southern Coal Producers Association, headed by Joseph Moody, to participate in the contract discussion. Moody immediately filed charges with the National Labor Relations Board accusing the UMW chief of unfair labor practice in refusing to bargain and asked NLRB general counsel Robert Denham to seek an injunction against the Union.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The nationwide coal wage conference may run aground today with John L. Lewis resorting to past strategy of trying to win a new pattern agreement from the northern segment of the industry.

The UMW president agreed to talk 1948 contract terms with northern, midwestern and far western operators producing 269 million tons of coal annually but refused to sit down with his old foe—the Southern Coal Producers Association.

A showdown will come today on the issue of whether to seat Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Association, in the bargaining parley called to negotiate a new nine contract to replace the pact that expires June 30.

Lewis contends that the association is not entitled to be represented in the conference because it did not sign the 1947 contract. The dispute dates back to last July.

Hungarian Envoy To U. S. Resigns

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—Rustem Vambrey, Hungarian minister to the United States, resigned his post today because of failure to improve relations between his country and the American government.

In a formal statement to a news conference, Vambrey blamed the Hungarian coalition government which took power in a coup a year ago for his failure.

The minister said that he plans to remain in the United States and write a paper on American and European criminology which, he said, was more interesting than diplomacy.

Wage Increase Plea Is Denied

PITTSBURGH, May 19.—(INS)—Westinghouse Air Brake Co., and its subsidiary, Union Switch & Signal Co., joined other major firms today in refusing to grant 3,500 production workers wage increases.

Harold Briney, president of the CIO Electrical Workers, Local No. 610, replied that the union "does not intend to take a flat 'no' in view of the company's high profits."

Meanwhile, a second work stoppage within two days occurred at the company's air brake plant in Wilmerding when 37 reservoir workers stopped work for one and one-half hours in a protest of job time study.

Opposition Develops On Move To Build Giant U.S. Carrier

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Powerful opposition suddenly developed today in the house to the administration's proposal to build the world's largest ship, a giant aircraft carrier capable of launching large bombers.

Rep. Allen (R) Ill., chairman of the house rules committee, said he is opposed to it.

Legislation authorizing the navy to construct the 65,000-ton super-carrier was unanimously approved Tuesday by the house armed services committee, but must be cleared by Allen's group before the house can consider it.

Other Legislation Pigeonholed
Another major piece of legislation—the universal military training bill—has been pigeonholed by the rules committee since July, 1947. It is not known whether Allen's opposition to the new carrier means it is headed for a similar fate.

Simultaneously, the administration ran into new delay on the draft measure reported out by the armed services committee.

Extend Time To Seek Agreement In Rail Dispute

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—Three railroad brotherhoods have another 10 days of grace to work out a wage settlement with the carriers before the government moves into court to seek an injunction against a possible strike.

District Court Judge T. Alan Goldsborough last night granted an extension of his original restraining order which halted the scheduled walkout of engineers, firemen and switchmen eight days ago after federal seizure of the railroads.

The order normally would have expired tonight, and Justice Department attorneys were prepared to go into court today and ask the judge to join the brotherhoods from striking for as long as the lines remain in government hands.

The extension, granted on Justice Department motion, automatically moves the hearing date to May 28.

The brotherhoods and the carriers resumed negotiations Tuesday and it was felt a settlement might be reached if they were allowed more time.

Family Of Nine Routed By Fire At Clifton Flats

Shenango Fire Department extinguishes $1,000 Fire At Home Of Earl Eddington

Damage estimated at $1,000 was caused by a fire which began around 8:30 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Earl Eddington, Clifton Flats. Two trucks from the Shenango Township Volunteer Department and the Fifth Ward truck from New Castle responded to the call.

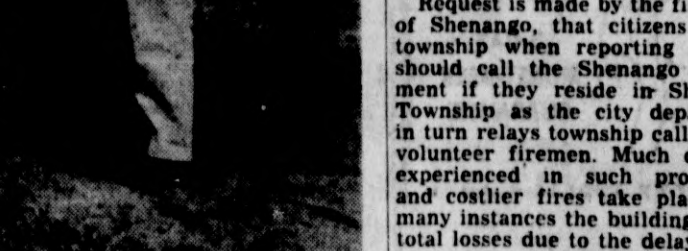

The frame home which contained four rooms downstairs and a large room on the second floor was occupied by a family of nine who were routed during the fire which badly damaged the second story room before the fire was brought under control.

Stubborn Blaze

The firemen were on the scene about an hour and a half before they were able to quell the stubborn blaze which started from a defective chimney. Shenango firemen reported that less damage would have been done if the department had been called first instead of the city firemen, who in turn had to call the Shenango firemen.

Request is made by the fire chief of Shenango, that citizens of the township when reporting a blaze should call the Shenango department if they reside in Shenango Township as the city department in turn relays township calls to the volunteer firemen. Much delay is experienced in such procedures and costlier fires take place with many instances the buildings being total losses due to the delay.

Commandos Ram Their Way Into Old Walled City

Thrust Aimed At Relieving
1,300 Jews Besieged By Arab Forces

MANY KILLED IN TEL AVIV RAIDS

By BENN FELLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TEL AVIV, State Of Israel, May 19.—Haganah commando forces rammed their way into the beleaguered old walled city of Jerusalem today in a thrust aimed at relieving 1,300 Jews besieged by Arabs.

A communique issued by headquarters of Haganah said that the Jewish relief forces broke into the old city in fierce midnight fighting.

The communique said that the vanguard of assault units linked forces with Jews isolated in the old city.

Bridgehead Widened

The communique added that the Jewish bridgehead was widened during all-night fighting against troops of the Trans-Jordan Arab legion.

The daring thrust was undertaken by the Jewish relief units after the Arab legionnaires previously battered their way into the Jewish quarter of old Jerusalem.

The Arab onslaught precipitated an all-out battle for control of the Holy City.

In another action close to the provisional capital of Israel, Haganah claimed its forces captured the former British military of Sarafand is situated between Tel Aviv and Lydda, 10 miles southeast of Tel Aviv.

Haganah said that Arab forces were put to flight in this battle. The populace of Tel Aviv took cover for the first time today since Arab air raids were begun five days ago when an alert was sounded in the city this morning.

Report 41 Killed

Unnerved by the aerial assault late yesterday in which 41 persons were killed and 60 wounded when bombs hit a bus terminal, the residents scurried into basements and sought safety under staircases because of the lack of adequate air raid shelter.

Principal attention remained focused on the mounting battle inside Jerusalem.

The Arab forces seized strategic positions and turned their artillery on units of Haganah, Irgun Zvai Leumi and Sternists.

In the old city itself there was furious street fighting and bitter house-to-house skirmishing.

Report were widespread that Jews still within the old city were prepared to give up but the resolute struggle indicated that they would not surrender without putting up a strong fight.

Government Wins Round In Battle With Miss Kellems

WESTPORT, Conn., May 19.—(INS)—The Federal government won a round today in its withholding tax battle with Vivien Kellems, outspoken woman manufacturer.

Funds of Miss Kellems totaling $1,685.40 were turned over to an Internal Revenue collector by the Westport Bank and Trust company.

The government had filed liens for this amount against the Kellems company after Miss Kellems had refused to deduct the withholding taxes of her 40 employees.

Marshall Sees No Change In Soviet Stand

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—Secretary of State Marshall declared today that recent Soviet suggestions for "peace talks" have brought no indication of an improved Russian attitude toward the United States.

Marshall told a news conference, however, that from the time standpoint there had been little opportunity for Russia to show any such improvement.

The secretary's comment followed a declaration by the state department accusing Russia of blocking world peace through an attitude of consistent opposition to proposals for international harmony.

The department, in an 11-point analysis, refuted charges in the Stalin-Henry Wallace exchange of "open letters" that the United States refused to cooperate with Russia in ending the "cold war."

Silence fell over the audience as Bishop Dearden extended his right hand and his mother kissed the Episcopal ring.

Stay Execution Of 17 Germans In Bulge Massacre

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—

The execution of 17 Germans for complicity in the massacre of American prisoners during the Battle of the Bulge was held up today while Army Secretary Royall studied their appeals which were turned down by the supreme court.

Royall ordered a stay of execution of the 17 men who were slated to die tomorrow after the supreme court refused to consider the appeals of the condemned men and 55 other Germans sentenced to prison for their part in the massacre.

The prisoners charged that they were tricked and tortured into confessing guilt.

Royall directed Gen. Lucius D. Clay, commander in the U. S. occupation zone in Germany to hold up all executions until he has "full and carefully" investigated the charges.

vealed that plans to take up the draft bill next Tuesday in the house have been abandoned. Martin thinks the measure might be called up the following week.

The Republican leader explained that the rules committee is having "extended hearings" on the draft measure. Allen said no attempt would be made to delay action, but declined to say when the bill would be cleared to the floor.

Endorsed By President

The proposal to build a mammoth new aircraft carrier, presumably capable of launching planes carrying atomic bombs, has been endorsed by President Truman, Secretary of Defense Forrestal and the joint chiefs of staff.

Allen pointed out, however, that it would take four years to build the giant ship, which would have a flight deck of 1,090 feet. He stated: "If there's an emergency, we need something to help us now, not four years from now. What navy are we going to fight that we need such a giant naval vessel?"

General Motors Strike Possible

Ten-Day Notice Of Intent To Strike Is Filed With State Board

DETROIT, May 19.—(INS)—Peace prevailed in the week-old strike of 75,000 Chrysler corporation workers today as negotiations between the UAW-CIO and the General Motors corporation headed for a showdown.

As state police continued to patrol Chrysler's Highland Park plant, the scene of a riotous outbreak Monday, the automotive industry was faced with another major shutdown.

The Chrysler stoppage reached the end of its first week yesterday without further disturbance as less than 500 pickets were posted outside the Highland Park plant.

The UAW filed a 10-day notice with the State Labor Mediation Board yesterday of intent to strike at GM. Negotiators previously had reported no progress in their bids for a 30-cent hour wage increase.

The UAW's contract with GM, covering some 225,000 employees throughout the nation, expires May 28. A union spokesman set that date as a deadline in the pay talks with a strike possible any time thereafter.

have been chosen as keynoter and permanent chairman, respectively, for the Republican convention opening June 21.

Both conventions will be held in Philadelphia.

As veteran leaders and staunch party men, Barkley and Rayburn command respect throughout Democratic ranks. They are regarded as capable handlers for what promises to be a "hot" situation if southern anti-Truman forces try to ditch the chief executive in favor of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower or some other dark horse.

Few other names have been mentioned for the chief convention assignments. Pennsylvania Democrats have urged that Sen. Francis Myers of the host state be made keynoter. Sen. Scott Lucas of Illinois has been suggested for the permanent chairmanship.

President's Day Luncheon And Installation By Local Section

Officers of the New Castle Section National Council of Jewish Women were installed at the annual president's day luncheon in Tifereth Israel synagogue Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Phillip Abramson, of Greensburg, state president, was the guest of honor and principal speaker.

Luncheon was served at tables attractively decorated in blue and white and with miniature gavel place favors as a symbolic note of the occasion.

Prayer by Mrs. L. F. Kohn and group singing of "America" led by Mrs. Ted Marlin opened the luncheon program. Mrs. Myron Milbourn acted as toastmistress and Mrs. Daniel Fisher presided.

Mrs. Abramson in her address, in speaking of the recognition of Israel as a state and the turn of events in Palestine, said it behooves us to maintain a great calm and orderly thinking. "I would bespeak your caution—it is a time for praying, for watching, for thinking, for working." In regard to council itself she urged members to give of themselves in support of forward-looking movements for council deals in intangibles was her concluding thought.

Officers installed by Mrs. Abramson were: President, Mrs. Alee Samuels; first vice president, Mrs. Myron Milbourn; second vice president, Irving Nixon; third vice president, Mrs. Morris Fineberg; recording secretary, Mrs. Alan Slutsky; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gus Slovinsky; financial secretary, Mrs. Julius Markley; treasurer, Mrs. Sol Weiner; directors, Mrs. Simon Skole, Mrs. Jack Kulkin, Mrs. Louis Sandler and Mrs. Daniel Fisher.

Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger, of Atlantic City, N. J., is honorary president of the organization, and Mrs. William L. Cosel honorary vice president.

Past presidents in attendance were called upon and accorded recognition. They were Mrs. Bernard Kline, president 1930-31; Mrs. William Cosel, 1935-38 and 1945-46; Mrs. Samuel Schwartz 1942-44; Mrs. Daniel Fisher, retiring president, and Mrs. Julius Kulkin, honorary past president.

Mrs. Fisher spoke in appreciation of the cooperation of all officers and committee chairmen and gave a resume of the programs during the past year.

Mrs. Samuels in her speech of acceptance as president, announced committee chairmen for the coming year and said "I hope we shall be able to work together for faith and humanity." Gifts from the section were presented by Mrs. Milbourn to Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Samuels.

Reports on the twentieth state convention at Bradford recently were given by Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Julius Cobb and Mrs. Samuels.

Mrs. William Cosel spoke in regard to the national mental hygiene program in which Council is endeavoring to arouse broad citizen interest in providing adequate mental health care in order that the government may go forward on the program.

During business, it was voted to contribute to the New Castle Sesqui-Centennial program booklet and members were urged to attend Wednesday morning services at Jameson Memorial hospital.

Hostesses were Mrs. Julius Cobb, Mrs. Percy Alpern and Mrs. Edward Haim.

A tempting dinner was served at tastefully appointed tables, decorated with seasonal flowers, white papers and pastel-hued butterflies. Mrs. L. C. Dayton and Mrs. Irvine Ralph were responsible for arrangements.

McCALL-VANFOSSAN

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Announcement is made of the engagement of Delores Jeanne McCall, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth McCall, 759 Lathrop street, and Clarence McCall of Fontana, Calif., to William K. Van Fossan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Van Fossan, 316 Cunningham avenue. An early fall wedding is planned.

DICKS-GREER EVENT IN NEW WILMINGTON

At a lovely candlelight ceremony at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, May 15 in the Neshannock Presbyterian church, New Wilmington, Miss Phyllis Jean Dicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dicks of New Wilmington, R. D. 1, became the bride of W. Sheldon Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Greer of Cochran, R. D. 3.

Rev. W. F. Byers officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, ferns and spring flowers in the presence of an assemblage of friends and relatives.

To the strains of the wedding procession the bride entered on the arm of her father. Her gown of white marquisette was fashioned with a low neckline and a yoke of wide lace which extended around the sweeping train, a fitted bodice, and long fitted sleeves terminating in points over the wrist. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion with lace trim was crested with lilies-of-the-valley. She carried white roses, centered with an orchid; and her only jewelry was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.

As maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Dicks, sister of the bride, was attired in a pale blue gown of tulle with a marquisette yoke, cap sleeves, and bustle back and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Laura Montgomery, of Sharon, as bridesmaid was attired in a pink gown fashioned like the maid of honor's, both with mitts and veil headpieces matching. She carried a bouquet of blue roses.

Edward Greer served his brother as best man and ushers were Kenny Montgomery, of Greenville, and Don Byler, of New Wilmington, a cousin of the bride.

Miss Dorothy Kirkbride, at the organ, accompanied Don Davis as he sang "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "Because."

After the ceremony there was a reception for 150 guests in the church parlors where a three-tiered wedding cake and spring flowers centered the bridal table.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer left on a southern honeymoon.

Mrs. Greer is a graduate of Union high school and the Buhl Hospital School of Nursing, Sharon, and has been on the staff at Buhl hospital. Mr. Greer, a graduate of Cochran high school and a veteran of three years of army service is employed with the American Viscose Corporation in Meadville.

They will make their home in a newly furnished apartment at 732 Hickory street, Meadville.

AIR MAIL, 1918-1948

It was a generation ago, as we reckon time, that the U. S. Army and the Post Office Department set up an experimental line between New York and Washington, using Army pilots. A lot of rough and smooth flying has been logged by the air mail service in the meantime.

In the early days rates were so high and distances flown so short that air mail did not have much advantage over railroad service. In 1920 a new civilian service between New York and San Francisco had a flavor of the old Pony Express days—planes by day and trains by night, with a frantic rush to make connections at the transfer stations. Air mail flew clear across the country in 1924 without help from the railroads.

The Army carried the air mails again for several months in 1934 when airline owners had been accused in collusion in bidding for contracts. Remember those fatal accidents before new contracts were made?

Today a network of lines, American and foreign, gives wings to letters all over the world. Here in the U.S.A. the domestic rate is only five cents. That is a big nickel's worth.

SOUTHERN RUNOFF VOTING PROGRAM

Several southern states primary laws that are quite different from the northern states, and the case in Florida is cited as an instance of an interesting situation.

In the recent primary election in Florida eight persons were contenders for the nomination as governor, and the law requires that the successful candidate be given a majority.

The two men who received the highest number of votes, each of whom received about thirty per cent of the total vote, are now required to engage in a second primary contest.

About 250,000 electors did not vote for either of the two highest candidates, and the man who can retain his own vote and win the larger number from this list of voters will be the candidate at the election.

OAK RIDGE STRIKE THREAT

The one hopeful aspect of the labor dispute at the Oak Ridge atomic energy laboratory is that there is still time for the parties to get together and avoid a disastrous shut-down.

But there is cause for alarm in the fact that the negotiations between the union and the company operating the plant have dragged along for months without an agreement. The recent action of the Government mediators in calling off indefinitely their attempts to negotiate a settlement makes it entirely possible that there will be a walkout after June 8.

The growing threat of a strike spotlights the limitations of the Taft-Hartley Law in dealing with this question of vital importance to the Nation's security, suggests the Philadelphia Inquirer. An injunction obtained by the Government under the act expires in three weeks.

This situation should direct the attention of Congress to the need for special handling of labor matters in atomic energy installations. The fact that a short walkout could mean a setback of months in their operations, as well as the Nation's security requirements, emphasizes that such strikes should not be tolerated.

It is to be hoped that the disputing parties will settle their differences without drastic Government action. But Congress should be ready to give the Government all powers it needs to prevent any interruption to the operations at Oak Ridge.

BUT REMEMBER!

Many injuries occur in the yards and gardens of homes. Most of these injuries are due to unsafe physical conditions of buildings and grounds, to the improper use of equipment such as ladders, hand tools, etc. Others are due to miscellaneous causes which are found in yards and gardens due to poor housekeeping. Good housekeeping is just as essential in the yard or garden as it is in the house itself. Many cuts received in the yard result from the presence of broken glass, boards with upturned nails, cans with rough edges, and other similar conditions which should never exist.

The prompt disposal of rubbish would avoid accidents and prevent many fires. Children's toys and playthings should not be allowed to remain in the yard where someone may stumble over them. Children should be taught to keep these things in a safe place when they are not using them.

Work, such as raking, hoeing and spading, can have rather serious after-effects if indulged in recklessly. Such partially or totally, for several days. Severe strains and after-effects may incapacitate the unwary Gardener, either partially or totally, for several days. Severe strains and even ruptures are not rare. Tools should be put away immediately after use. Such tools as rakes, hoes and cultivators should never be left lying on the ground with sharp points or sharp edges turned up.

The parole system is what lets a criminal pay his debt to society on the installment plan.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

Egypt's announcement that the waters of Palestine have now been "dangerous" raised the possibility today that mine-laying operations have begun possibly as a prelude to extensive Arab operations by sea.

The Egyptian navy is far from being a powerful one but it could be far from a negligible factor if it were thrown into hostile operations.

So far as is known, the Mediterranean coast of Palestine has virtually no defense. Great Britain established no artillery emplacements overlooking the sea during the 25 years she controlled the Holy Land under League of Nations mandate.

Britain To Remain Aloof

A sizable part of the British fleet always was based in eastern Mediterranean waters and the constant patrols were deemed sufficient to guard the country against any eventuality. British warships are still at Suez and Cyprus, but Britain is determined firmly to keep hands off Palestine unless British troops still there are endangered.

The Egyptians have half a dozen good patrol vessels, all well armed and with speeds ranging to 36 knots. They have supply ships, training ships, inspection vessels, coastal motorboats, one transport and a luxurious royal yacht called the Mahroussa which could mount guns and cause a lot of trouble.

Whether the Egyptians would "formalize" the Palestine war by throwing this compact little navy into action is of course problematical.

With air cover supplied by the 150 fighter planes known to be owned by Egypt, a lot of damage could be done to cities like Tel Aviv and the Port of Jaffa along the coast.

Possible Targets

In addition, possible targets would be the harbored ferry-ships now engaged in taking Jewish immigrants to Palestine from internment camps on the Island of Cyprus.

Under international law, such passenger ships would be immune from attack. But with a formal declaration of war, the Egyptians would be able to stop the vessels and search them for arms and ammunition. If such were found aboard, the passengers could be ordered off and the contraband seized or destroyed.

Thus far the conflict in Palestine is still a highly unofficial affair.

The Arabs claim they are marching to liberate or defend their Moslem and Christian brethren in the Holy Land. The Jews simply

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

Here is an item from Weston-Super-Mare, England:

"The National Federation of Boot Trades Associations has rejected a resolution deploring the use of the word 'cobbler' to describe shoe repairmen."

"Member A. K. Hudson made one of the speeches that turned the tide. He said: 'I much prefer to be a cobbler than a snob.'"

So much for Weston-Super-Mare, England.

But in the same issue of my newspaper that carried the above item I saw a number of advertisements and read a number of stories that certainly make it look to me as if this country of ours were getting to be a nation of snobs.

Several of the new automobiles are advertised as looking much more expensive than they really are.

What is that but snobbery?

Why do you want your car to look more expensive than it is?

The majority of fur advertisements promise you that this or that particular coat, selling for a couple of hundred dollars, looks just like genuine mink or sable.

Is that anything but snobbery?

I wish you could come to some of the nights clubs here in New York with me some evening.

There you find snobbery at its very perfection.

Certain tables are reserved for certain "classes" of people.

In some of the rooms you have to be a "celebrity" to get in at all.

(A celebrity is a person who can give to or get for the place some publicity and who is also quite liberal with his tips to the captains and waiters.)

A lot of people go to all sorts of extremes to get their names into either the society news or the Broadway columns.

Hundreds of press agents, cashing in on this snobbery, make young fortunes on the ambitions of their clients.

What is it all about?

What is the sense of all this snobbery and all this crazy desire to be somebody—or at least to seem to be somebody?

Suppose you have a muskrat coat and the whole world knows it is muskrat. Does it lower you in the esteem of your real friends that it is muskrat and not mink?

Why do you want a Pontiac that looks like a Cadillac?

Is there anything wrong with a Pontiac or a Ford or a Chevrolet?

Is Nature more beautiful when seen from a Rolls-Royce than from a DeSoto?

I don't know who started that snobbery business in our country or when it started.

But I assure you it doesn't do us any good.

It gets us into debt and makes hypocrites and forebushers out of us.

Snobbery is ridiculous and, once people see through you, you are through.

"I much prefer to be a cobbler than a snob."

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

STUTTERS NEED TO BE UNDERSTOOD

There are about 1,300,000 stutters in the United States. For years I have been saying now and then in this column that most stuttering is emotional and that if we parents understood children as we should and aimed always to make them feel comfortable when they speak there would be very few stutters; and that most of those who do stutter could recover.

Thousands of parents have written me, enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope asking for my bulletin, "Stuttering in the Young Child," which you too may have by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Yesterday I told you of a visit by Mrs. Myers and myself to the Wednesday Evening Public Speaking club of the patients at the National Hospital for Speech Disorders, in New York City, from which about 40,000 persons, handicapped chiefly by stuttering, have been returned to jobs and useful lives in the last thirty years.

The patients come from nearly all the states and several foreign countries and some 70 per cent of them are treated without charge.

Group Singing

The meeting opened with group singing, and how they sang! The songs were the old familiar melodies in words expressing the curative philosophy of the hospital, no self-pity; see the funny side of things; don't take yourself too seriously; put yourself in the other fellow's place; celebrate his successes with your own; why hurry? and so on. Their song, "Slow and Easy," best epitomizes the philosophy of the hospital, I think.

As I reported yesterday, every speaker (an ex-stutterer) spoke with apparent ease. Barring two or three instances, none stuttered at all. Not once did I hear from the twenty speakers such fillers as "uh" and "ah," so often uttered by the average school and college student speaking on his feet. Several times in this column I have said that the "uh" and "ah" habit could be prevented or corrected if a comfortable home and classroom atmosphere were provided where there was no fear of not going fast enough, or of interruptions or ridicule by the teacher or classmates, or of violent adverse criticisms after the speaker has finished.

Witty Remarks

They took plenty of time, you see. A number of them even took time enough to add with witty remarks. Imagine the average student in the public speaking class in high school or college feeling secure enough to do likewise. Yet not once was a person during the whole evening told to "go slow and easy." It's slow and easy way has been the warp and woof of the hospital atmosphere.

Though I think of this hospital as a kind of school, I know that physical and mental diagnosis and therapy are administered individually by the coordinated efforts of doctors, psychologists, psychiatrists and speech clinicians. James Sonnett Green, who founded this hospital over 30 years ago is its director and seems to be its soul.

I wish every teacher of public speaking might visit this Public Speaking Club (Ephratha club) of ex-stutterers or those who will soon be ex-stutterers. It might be worth more than several courses at a university. Indeed, it would be valuable experience for any teacher or parent.

From Me To You

By MESECALL

It's that time of year . . . and as the young folks walk down the streets you just know that it's an exciting time . . . Meaning of course that the seniors of our High School are about to finish one phase of their lives. Graduation time is just around the corner . . . "Dinks" are still bright and new . . . exchange of these badges of seniority is a popular pastime. Laughter and good will toward fellow classmates . . . the last few days for many of freedom . . . then on to higher education or a life of work.

Which brings to mind . . . it's been many years since our local high school has had a reunion . . . A few classes scattered here and there attempt to get the "gang" together . . . But it was once the rule to have a big picnic where all classes met . . . acquaintances renewed . . . gabfests were held in the picnic grove at Cascade Park . . . People who hadn't met for years looked each other over and said . . . "My han't Joe aseed?" or, "remember that little guy . . . remember how shy he was, now look at him, manager of that big plant down south." Yes, friends, there are many good times to be had at a school reunion.

It has been suggested by several that this year . . . 1948 . . . the 150th year of New Castle . . . would make a swell time to start again the High School reunions. July 4th to 10th has been set aside for Sesqui-Centennial Time. Once the executive committee talked about this phase for part of the celebration . . . Wonder how the plans are working out?

Golf we see will be one of the highlights of the week . . . we have some mighty fine golfers in this section . . . surely none of them are going to sit back and let some unknown enter the contest and carry away the prizes.

The big show . . . with a cast of several hundred will soon begin to gather. The historical background for this pageant was collected by Judge W. Walter Braham and his committee . . . and let me tell you, folks . . . this historical committee have uncovered some very interesting information.

"Summer Complaint"

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Newman's Murder Needs Probing

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The murder of George Polk, of the Columbia Broadcasting System, in Greece is like a sudden lightning flash in the murky atmosphere of that troubled country. It deserves the fullest investigation, which should have the backing of the government of the United States.

I saw George Polk in Athens last fall. He was one of three or four really able correspondents in Greece. Both in the war, as a Navy combat flyer, and then on his beat in the strife-ridden Middle East, Polk had repeatedly proved his courage, his initiative, his determination.

Because he wanted to get the story behind the surface of the news, he was not content to take government handouts and government favors. In the midst of the intrigues of Athens, he kept his eyes on the main goal—to give the American people the whole story regardless of who might be hurt or offended.

Resented in High Places

As a consequence, he was resented in high places in the Athens government. He told me last September of the effort to smear him as a "red" or a "Pink"—a favorite technique of the extreme rightists.

Last winter, an article on Greece by Polk appeared in Harper's magazine. It seemed to me to be a critical but a fair appraisal of the muddle in Athens. Nevertheless, the Greek ambassador in Washington, Vassili C. Dendramis, sent a violent protest to Polk's employer, CBS.

Dendramis' protest was politely rejected by Frank Stanton, CBS president. It was forwarded to Polk in Athens, who considered it a more or less open effort by Dendramis to bring about his discharge. Davidson Taylor, vice president in charge of public affairs, tells me that CBS had complete confidence in Polk and that his decision to come to the United States for a year's study at Harvard as a Nieman fellow had nothing to do with his relationship with the network.

It is because of such reporters as Polk and others that the network has achieved its high standard of news coverage. Edward Murrow of CBS, in several able discussions of the Greek tangle in (Continued on Page Seven)

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

The Hatter's Union has come out against Henry Wallace . . . They evidently feel he should not have been so careless as to throw their product in the ring.

But Henry is leading in the balloting in a chain of news reel theaters in New York . . . If the election can be held between the cartoon and short subjects, he's in!

Meanwhile Tom Dewey and Harold Stassen have been made honorary Indians . . . Since their debate both are entitled to be called Chief Red in the Face.

These two loyal sons of the tribe will now spend considerable time trying to dislodge the Great White Father in Washington.

It is ritual that no man can run for president who hasn't been adopted by one tribe or another but so far Taft has escaped the Indian sign.

This is Dewey's third time around for the peace pipe . . . He is the only one of the candidates who can play three little Indians all by himself.

TOOLS

Tools are hammers saws and wrenches.

Things that should be kept on benches.

And on cellar walls be racked up. Or in special places packed up. But, always when small boys use them.

They forget the rule and lose them.

Tools are pliers used by fathers. When a leaky faucet bothers. Or a radiator's hissing.

Boys of nine are apt to take them. Front yard, back yard, and fore-sake them.

Tools are source of family clamor. Fathers growling: "Where's the hammer?"

Tools are chisels wheels to grind them. Seldom where men look to find them.

Since no law or plea can stop them. Where they've used them, small boys drop them.

Jobs Upon A Time

Mme. Frances Alda for 20 years one of the outstanding stars of the Metropolitan Opera company in one of its most brilliant periods, now imparts her musical knowledge to students at her New York studio. Mme. Alda was born Frances Davis in Christchurch, New Zealand, and at the age of 17 was singing with a Gilbert and Sullivan repertory company in Melbourne, Australia. Mme. Alda was given a Metropolitan contract in 1908, after successes in Paris, London and Milan.

Named to direct the European Recovery Program or Marshall Plan, now the Economic Co-operation Administration, Paul C. Hoffman of South Bend, Ind., needs all his administrative business ability to handle the matter, as it is conceded to be a "tough job."

Paul Hoffman was born in Chicago 86 years ago. He attended the University of Chicago for a year, then left and became an auto salesman—selling is his business.

How About Stassen Cabinet?

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—It has been said of Harold Stassen that, if elected president, he could not form a suitable cabinet or find the right men to accept high federal posts.

This is, if well-founded, a legitimate criticism. If Stassen cannot get together an efficient staff of assistants, he should not be elected. And if under the alleged circumstances he were elected, the country would be in for a disastrous four years.

But we should not take his rivals' word for this supposed disability on Stassen's part. It is a matter that needs to be examined, both on the basis of reasoned speculation and of past performance.

"No 'Minnesota Gang'"

First of all, it seems self-evident that Stassen would not bring a "Minnesota gang" to Washington. President Harding brought an Ohio gang because he was beholden to the party machine of that big-voter state. But Stassen's Minnesota, with only 22 votes, will not carry much weight at the Republican Convention. President Truman stands three deep in Missouri job-holders in or near the White House. This is because he lived a provincial life before coming to Washington, and has to look homeward for trusted advisers. But Stassen, more and more of a rolling stone, gets around and meets people like the traveling salesman he is.

Next, it is obvious that Stassen will not pick his appointees from the established pool of GOP officialdom. He cannot take his pick from the Drive-It-Yourself office-seekers in the various State capitals. Most of these time-servers, always hoping to ride presidential coat tails into Washington, are already rented out to other candidates. Nor can Stassen—as can Senators Taft and Vandenberg, Speaker Martin and Governor Dewey—draft GOP regulars from the Senate and House into Cabinet posts. These old Guardians are likewise in hock to Stassen's rivals.

Not Hopelessly Cut Off

Does this situation leave Stassen hopelessly cut off from presidential reinforcements? Not unless one assumes that the nation's brainpower is stockpiled in Washington and other seats of government. If it is, as one might hope, distributed in businesses, professions and colleges around the country, Stassen still has a chance. In fact the record shows that he has met and solved the same problem once before. Ten years ago, as a rank outsider, Stassen became Minnesota governor and proceeded to organize his administration with little or no help from existing brainpower pools.

As an indication of how "President" Stassen might build an administration, here is how Governor Stassen did it in Minnesota. The type of men he chose are, of course, more important than their names.

For Labor Conciliator he chose a young Labor Leader, Lloyd J. Haney, then 31, was president of his International Typographical Union local. He made a great success, turned the corner of his career and is now a prosperous manufacturer in Ohio.

For Director of Welfare he chose a young lawyer, Walter W. Finke, then 31, handled the job well and is now executive secretary of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce at a five-figure salary.

Diri Farmer Selected

For Deputy Administrator of Agriculture and Director of Dairy and Foods he chose a 42-year-old dirt farmer who had no income except from the soil. Edward J. Thyne did well enough to become Lieutenant-Governor, Governor and U. S. Senator.

For head of the State Insurance Compensation Board he chose an ex-schoolmate and secretary of his campaign committee, Richard Golling, then 34, happened to be Jewish which carries no bloc of votes in Minnesota as it does in New York and elsewhere. Shortly before his first election Stassen had a visit from the Silver Shirts who ordered him to drop Golling. Stassen said: "Dick Golling will be in my organization as long as he wants to stay." He's still there.

For Commissioner of Administration, a sort of budget director, Stassen reached into private business. He chose Leslie M. Gravin, then 35, a compiler and analyst of governmental surveys. He is now earning $25,000 a year as a professional researcher in Hartford, Conn.

Most of these Stassen appointees, and 40-odd others, were without political experience. They helped run the State in a manner that has been much admired and seldom criticized. Perhaps Stassen could not repeat this record on a presidential scale. But I have it on good authority that, if elected, he will use the same methods of procuring a federal staff. And I wouldn't want to bet that he can't do it.

Hints On Etiquette

At the end of the wedding, one little, but often overlooked, courtesy is—or should be—demanded of the bride and groom. As soon as the bride is in traveling dress, she should be sure to arrange to take a few moments to say goodbye to her own and her new husband's parents.

The World and the Mud Puddles

RUSSIA AND BERLIN

At the close of the last war the armies of four nations were closing in on the City of Berlin—the armies of the United States, Great Britain, France and Russia. The Russians had proceeded through Poland. They bypassed Warsaw, the chief city of Poland, without giving any assistance to the Polish armies entrenched at Warsaw. They wanted to get to Berlin. The armies of the United States, Great Britain and France were likewise pushing on to Berlin, anyone of them being able to take the city. Did they do it? No, they politely stepped to one side and allowed Russia to take Berlin.

They Say

WASHINGTON—Sen. Taft (R-O.):

"We can't do everything at once and I have a proposal. I would like a 2200 million dollar cut in army flood control and river improvement funds may be unwise politically, yet it is the soundest thing for anyone who has an interest in fiscal soundness of the nation."

SAN FRANCISCO—Henry A. Wallace, third party presidential hopeful:

"I am elated upon receiving word of Stalin's reply to an open letter. It is a real and definite offer by Russia to sit down and discuss our differences and to find a means of ending the cold war."

WASHINGTON—Defense Secretary Forrestal:

"No man can accurately predict the nature of any future war in which this country may be involved—but it is important to lay our plans so that we look to the future and not the past."

State Police Say:

Approximately 750 new drivers are taking to the road every month in the area embraced by Troop D. More than 3,000 persons have passed their driver's examination since January 1st. The only way these new drivers can become expert drivers is by actual experience in traffic. The careful driver will be alert for signs of inexperience in other drivers and compensate for it.

The Salmon, "River of No Return," in Idaho, is the longest river in the nation that flows within a single state.

What Are We Going To Do?

We could just as well have entered Berlin and dominated the situation as the Russian Army, but thanks to all the conferences of Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Churchill and Mr. Stalin, they let Russia do the things she did and we are going to have a heck of a job by what we call a "cold war" to force Russia to allow us access to the City of Berlin. Can we do it peacefully or must we use force when the Russians say: "You can't pass over the road with your supplies, with the personnel of your forces or your private citizens unless you have certain passes, the passing out of which passes we will oversee." Now, isn't that a job to put up to General Clay? Handicapped as he is, he has some job to keep the lines of communication open from Berlin to the west.

The question is: "What are we going to do about it?"

Court Upholds Verdict Of $560 To Barbers For Assault By Alice Mary Powell

OTHER EVENTS
IN COURT HOUSE

In an opinion handed down by Judge W. Walter Braham on Tuesday the motion of Alice Mary Powell for a new trial is refused. A verdict of $560 in favor of Harold and Bertha Barber is upheld.

The case is one in which the Barbers sued the defendant for damages arising out of an assault and battery case. Mrs. Barber is a school teacher. Her husband's brother is married to the daughter of the defendant. Some difficulty arose and Alice Mary Powell went to the school where Mrs. Barber teaches and assaulted her. It was testified that she had knocked Mrs. Barber down, beaten her head against the floor and otherwise abused her.

UNINSTRUCTED DELEGATES

With the presidential conventions just around the corner there still seems some confusion in the minds of voters as to the difference between an instructed and an uninstructed delegate.

An instructed delegate is one who has been elected as a delegate to the party convention pledged to vote for the popular choice of the party for the presidential nomination.

An uninstructed delegate is one not pledged to support the popular choice of the party.

Almost all delegates, both district and at-large, on the Republican ticket are uninstructed. This for the reason that no candidates for the presidential nomination entered the Republican primary. True, there were some write-ins but this is never a satisfactory test of the voters' sentiment.

Where no candidates enter the field for delegates there is always the possibility that some person, not the choice of the majority of the voters, might easily get a slight majority of a comparative few write-in votes. Technically this would be the popular choice of the party. Actually it might be some one who would be in the category of a "freak" candidate. Hence the delegates are uninstructed which means they can vote for the man they believe the best of the field at the convention.

Instructed delegates are "instructed" for a very short time. They are expected, but not bound, to vote for the choice of the party upon the first ballot and perhaps on the second ballot. After that they are free to vote as they wish. In the Democratic convention most of Pennsylvania's delegates are instructed to support the popular choice of the party. President Truman was entered as a candidate and received a large Democratic vote. Hence most Pennsylvania delegates will vote for him on the first ballot, and it is probable there will be only one ballot. Voters who are interested in having their delegates to either convention vote for their choice should write or talk to the elected delegates.

MOTION REFUSED

The motion of Elrick H. Scarazero for a new trial in the case of the Manufacturers' Distributing company against him was refused by Judge Braham. The company had sued for payment of a boiler purchased by Mr. Scarazero. The verdict was for the defendant in the amount of $358.20.

AIR SUIT CONTINUES

Continuing the equity suit of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Reynolds against the Wilson and Penn-Aero aviation companies, testimony was resumed Tuesday.

The Reynolds ask the defendant companies be restrained from having their planes fly low over the Reynolds home. Former Sheriff Reynolds testified Tuesday that the planes flew dangerously close to his home, and he has 162 pictures of such incidents.

WOLVES' CLUB LADIES NIGHT

Crowd Of One Hundred Attend
Dinner-Program Tuesday Evening At The Castleton

Ladies night held by the Wolves club attracted a large group of 100 members and guests Tuesday evening at The Castleton, and proved to be one of the most successful of social functions held by the local civic organization.

At 7 o'clock a delicious full course chicken dinner was served on small tables arranged in cabaret style. "America" was sung and the invocation by Joseph Bordonaro was given prior to the meal. Lovely shoulder corsages were presented to wives of the members and all women guests present. During the course of the meal, Charles Farone entertained with piano and accordion requests.

Social chairman James Lombardo presided and special tribute was given during the informal program to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cozza, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sgarlino and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blas, the latter couple from Pittsburgh, all observing their wedding anniversaries. With Charles Farone at the piano, a period of community singing was enjoyed.

President Nick Casalandra conducted a brief business meeting at this time. All guests were introduced and following, Michael Genaula, secretary, gave the report. Program chairman Joseph Frenzel called on the various committee chairmen for their reports; speakers, William Fazzone; publicity, Frank Cozza; steering, Joseph B. Bordonaro; public affairs, Frank Moretti, and social committee, James Lombardo, who announced the annual Wolves picnic to be held on Sunday, July 11.

Special features of the evening were the excellent banjo selections offered by Jack Blas of Pittsburgh.

Dancing concluded the pastime for the remaining hours, to the music of a popular orchestra. Novelty dances were also enjoyed throughout the evening.

Committeemen who arranged the fine evening of entertainment and who are given credit for its success are Orlando Calazza, Frank Bordonaro and Frank Sgarlino.

MURDER-SUICIDE

LANCASTER, Pa., May 19.—(INS)—Police said today at Lancaster that the double shooting near Drumore of 68-year-old Conrad Bucher and Mrs. Viola Milburn, 29, a Negress, was murder and suicide.

George Milburn, 42, husband of the dead woman, was released by police following questioning. Milburn was working at St. Joseph hospital at the time of the shooting, state police reported.

The shotgun used in the murder-suicide was found under Bucher's body, police added.

The custom of wearing "mourning" rings, particularly in memory of dead sovereigns, reached high popularity in the 14th century.

Seek Explanation From Russia On Soldier Mystery

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—The State department turned to Moscow today for a full explanation of the mysterious disappearance of Sgt. James H. McMillin from the U. S. Embassy in the Russian capital.

Rumors that the 21-year-old American had deserted for the love of a Russian woman gave way to reports in official Washington circles that he may be an involuntary prisoner of the Soviet Union.

There still is no official word from the Soviet capital concerning the whereabouts of the youthful sergeant, who was cryptographer in the office of the military attache at the embassy.

High government quarters in Washington, however, attached considerable significance to a letter which McMillin purportedly sent to the mayor of Moscow giving his reasons for abandoning his post.

The letter, quoted by the Soviet news agency Tass, was said to be identical with one addressed by McMillin to U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith and was bitterly critical of the American system of government.

State G.O.P. Delegation Plans Are Shaping Up

By JOHN PAGET
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, May 19.—Gov. James H. Duff's plan to head a delegation of 73 unpledged Pennsylvania delegates to the Republican national convention are shaping up today in the face of an invasion by advance men of presidential hopeful Harold E. Stassen.

Duff, whose political blueprint for the bloc allows for no pre-convention paring of votes, has had his hand strengthened by a resolution adopted by 10 Allegheny county delegates pledging support of the "no commitment" strategy.

Stassen supporters hoping to stake out delegates for the former Minnesota governor in advance of the convention are reported active in metropolitan areas. Their activities in Allegheny county, political stamping ground of Duff's, apparently have been curbed by the unity resolution.

Jay Cooke, former Philadelphia GOP chairman, is the spearhead of the Stassen campaign in Pennsylvania.

Duff, determined to prevent repetition of the Pennsylvania delegation's uncertainty which made its members the laughing stock of the 1940 convention, wants to have everything in apple pie order when the strategic time arrives to swing the 73 votes to the candidate he and his lieutenants believe can win in November against any Democratic aspirant.

Eight years ago, the Pennsylvania delegation was wrangling over the candidacy of then Gov. Arthur H. James at a time when the Wendell Willkie bandwagon had rolled by and the Indians had the nomination in his hip pocket.

Duff is counting heavily on pre-convention pledges similar to the Allegheny county announcement from Dauphin, Delaware, Luzerne, Philadelphia and Lancaster counties.

He appears confident of gaining all but about two of the 12-member Philadelphia bloc.

TAXES ARE REDUCED

WAYNESBURG, Pa., May 19.—(INS)—A $12,500 windfall enabled Perry Township today to reduce its tax rate.

The money, a delinquent tax payment from a defunct coal company, permitted the school board directors to cut the tax rate by two mills, lowering it to seven.

TAXES ARE BOOSTED

CLEARFIELD, Pa., May 19.—(INS)—The Clearfield school district today had two new tax increases.

The school board voted to add three mills to the property levy, increasing it to 42 mills. The per capita tax was boosted from $1 to $5.

recent months, gave full credit to Polk for digging out the background and the facts.

Until recently there were several correspondents in Greece interested in getting more than the routine news and not at all interested in sending out merely the government point of view. Among them were M. W. Fodor of the Washington Post, Homer Bigart of the New York Herald-Tribune, and Constantine Argyris of the Christian Science Monitor.

Today only Argyris is left in Athens. Recently Bigart's dispatches were severely criticized by Dwight Griswold, administrator of the American aid program, in a letter to the Herald-Tribune. Bigart was transferred to Belgrade but the Herald-Tribune says that this was at his own request and that he expects to return to Greece.

We need more than ever today the kind of reporting George Polk was doing in Greece. What is really taking place there is far from clear as the headlines tell of a series of mass executions in Athens.

It is possible that Polk was killed in an effort to establish contact with the Communists and to get an interview with the mysterious General Markos. That is the kind of adventurous reporter he was. But the circumstances surrounding his death, as reported from Salonika, do not make it sound that way.

I have lost a friend, a gallant and loyal friend. I last saw him at a wedding party when he was about to marry a charming young Greek girl. He was gay and very happy.

We have all lost a man who believed in freedom and in truth, and it is a loss we can ill afford. (Copyright, 1948, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Coal Supplies
Prove Problem

State May Have To Go Into
"Market" To Get Some
Coal Supplies

OTHER NEWS OF
STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, May 19.—(INS)—Purchasing agents of the Department of Property and Supplies may have to go to "market" to get coal supplies for some state institutions during the next fiscal year beginning June 1. . . . Supplies usually are handled on a contract basis covering flat sums, but this year some coal companies are unwilling to quote a price due to anticipated fluctuations. . . . They would like to bid on an adjustment price scale that would guarantee them their profit despite increased operating costs. . . . Such an agreement is against state policy. . . . So the department plans to make a "counter" purchase for the Polk State Hospital and may have to go shopping for other institutions. . . . The department received about 400 requisitions for coal service in lettings several weeks ago, but not all institutions were covered. . . . Some bids will have to be re-opened, according to purchasing agent Henry C. Shank, to get firm prices. . . . State owned and operated buildings consume annually a total of 530,000 tons of coal and 5,000,000 gallons of oil. . . . Most operate power plants and consume coal year around.

The ratio of state employees to the total population in Pennsylvania is among the lowest in the nation, according to the state planning board. . . . Last year there were 13 persons on the commonwealth payroll for every 1,000 citizens. . . . The ratio was the lowest of industrial states, the board claimed. . . . Pennsylvania payrolls were less costly than those of comparable states, it added. . . . "The cost to maintain the monthly pay roll of all non-school employees in the Commonwealth is only $2.27 per capita as compared with $4.09 in California, $3.36 in Illinois, $3.02 in Massachusetts and $4.73 in New York." . . . The board did not compare the amounts of salaries offered in each state.

If teachers are "shrinking violets" it's due to "general indifference toward school and teacher," according to the State Education Association. . . . The PSEA places on the public the responsibility for improving attitudes and social restrictions that have dogged the teaching profession for years. . . . It is conducting a campaign to improve public relations for teachers.

The 1949 meeting of the General Assembly promises to be one of the more important sessions of the decade. . . . Lawmakers will give final consideration to the half-billion dollar bonus approved initially during the 1945 session. . . . It is unlikely that any opposition will develop to the proposal in the assembly. . . . Legislation making the money available for the bonus is in the form of a constitutional amendment relating to the Commonwealth's borrowing power. . . . Such amendments must be approved by two separately elected legislatures and then must be sanctioned by a majority of the electorate. . . . So far, it has been approved by one legislature; passage is virtually assured in the next session and all indications point to endorsement by the voters. . . . Payments probably will begin in the latter part of 1949.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

CATALINA ISLAND, Cal., May 19.—(INS)—What movie stars do for their art! And reporters for theirs!

Handsome Dan O'Herlihy—Irish star whom you'll soon meet with Orson Welles in "Macbeth"—and this reporter were burned like lobster today while sitting on a Catalina Island rock during the filming of "Kidnapped". . . . Youthful, Roddy MacDowell, cruising up and down in the featured schooner with its sails flying, could afford to laugh—he's brown as a berry and unfazed by the sun.

Producer-Star

The Robert Louis Stevenson classic is being filmed as a monogram picture and produced by Lindsay Parsons, with Roddy as sun. Dan talked about Hollywood. He said: "I don't find Hollywood phony. It's so different from what I had read. The people here are just like everywhere else—only more money. I've been here nearly a year and have been to only one night club. That was on my wife's birthday."

Nothing Phony

"Do you know what I think? I think Hollywood's phoniness is nothing but a product of the Hollywood writers' imagination."

Ouch! . . . And, sure enough, at that moment the cameras were picking up a crash of two boats in a "kidnapped" scene—and there was nothing phony about the splintering of the smaller boat.

O'Herlihy—who scored in Arthur Rank's "Odd Man Out"—said Hollywood salaries for top stars are really not as high as those in Europe, but there's one nice difference here: "No matter what you make there, it all goes in taxes. Here we can keep some of it."

O'Herlihy—a graduate in architecture at the University College of Dublin—turned to dramatics in self-defense. He acted in college plays, found he liked it and filled the bill—and it "paid very well."

The O'Herlihy's (she's a non-professional) have a daughter, aged two, Owen. They expect another baby this summer. . . . He has had an offer in Italy at that time but will probably turn it down because "one doesn't leave one's wife at a time like that."

And then he passed the unguent—there's nothing phony about those sun blisters.

Blue Cross Plan
Praised By Duff

HARRISBURG, May 19.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff today hailed the non-profit Blue Cross Hospital Service as an immeasurable aid in protecting workers "from the economic worries of hospitalization."

Duff's statement was made upon presentation of Blue Cross certificates of service to state capitol groups which have been members of the plan since its inauguration 10 years ago.

Thomas B. Schmidt, president of the service in central Pennsylvania, said the Blue Cross has paid out $6,597,901 to 42 member hospitals on behalf of 103,065 member patients in the area.

In 1849, during the California gold rush, hen eggs sold for as much as $1.50 each.

LEMON RIND DRESSING

Wash a lemon, then cut and squeeze out the juice. Put the rind, the whole thing, through a food chopper using the finest blade. Combine the two and add 3 tablespoons of sugar and let this stand at least an hour. Mix up 1/2 cup of mayonnaise with 1/2 cup of sour cream. Then mix in the lemon dressing. A wonderful dressing and perfect with shredded cabbage.

Centennial At Wampum Ends

Program At Presbyterian Church Is Concluded On Tuesday Night

(Special To The News)
WAMPUM, May 19.—To climax the Centennial Celebration of the Wampum Presbyterian church an anniversary night was held last night. Many former members from other communities attended and enjoyed reminiscing of days gone by and the happy meetings spent in the church.

Rev. J. H. Thorhauer, pastor of the church, presided. Prayer was offered by the Rev. John M. Fife of the Westfield Presbyterian church. The Rev. Charles Z. Bell, of Ellwood City read the scripture. Organ music was played by Eugene Repman, a quartette selection was rendered by Mrs. William Zeh, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Paul and Leland McCollough; and J. Sharp Fullerton of Westfield. Moderator of Presbytery brought greeting from Presbytery.

Greetings Extended
Greetings were also extended from the Methodist church by Mrs. Ray McBride, who spoke in behalf of the minister, Rev. Jack Boyd, who was present but unable to speak because of a throat ailment. Albert Gerlach of the First Pentecostal church expressed greetings from his church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Schmidt, who was unable to attend. C. M. Marshall of the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City also extended greetings. Dr. Charles Cochran, brought greetings from the Princeton Presbyterian church which will observe its 100th anniversary during the summer was unexpectedly detained and could not be present.

Rev. Bell Speaks
The Rev. Charles Z. Bell, of Ellwood City, gave the address of the evening which was a resume of interesting facts and history concerning the early days of the church. Rev. Bell has been a frequent visitor in the church ever since its beginning and has participated in the various events of the church under all its former pastors. The Rev. Seth Morrow, of Pottsville, ended the program with a few remarks of the memories and inspirations that the centennial has created along with the past activities and spiritual thoughts, closing with the benediction.

Reception Is Held
At the close of the program, a reception and social hour was enjoyed in the church basement. Delicious refreshments were served by the members of the Boethian class.

The five day celebration will be long remembered by those who attended, as one of the finest commemorative events of the times. The lovely Mother-Daughter and Father-Son banquet were outstanding in both attendance and entertainment. The capacity attendance at the two Sunday services and the fine addresses by the visiting ministers showed the progressiveness and growth of the church. Last night's service revived days gone by and was a pleasant gathering of members and friends.

teazel and other unwelcome immigrants. Just as I was swooping along through a rough patch, a hen pheasant scrambled out from beneath the knives and ran through the fence into the neighboring field. The cutter bar had passed close above her hidden nest, which held a clutch of 14 eggs. I left a yard-wide patch of tall weeds uncut, in the hope that she would come back and brood out her young.

We sat down on the back porch in the gathering twilight and watched for her return. The collie spotted her first as she came stepping cautiously through the fence. She made a careful survey of the whole area, and seemed at first to be having difficulty in finding her nest. Finally she disappeared at the right spot and we thought she had come home to stay. The next day, however, the nest appeared deserted, and in another evening the eggs lay cold and wet in the drizzle, clearly abandoned.

New Export Policy For Soviet Trade

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—The government has launched a new export policy which will increase trade with the Soviet bloc but officially ban the shipment of many strategic materials to Russia and its satellite.

The new policy contains, for the first time, a definite top-secret schedule of commodities which can and cannot be exported to Russia and its Soviet-controlled nations.

Heretofore, only an "informal criteria" has been used by commerce officials in approving or disapproving shipments to Russia. The licensing of practically all exports to eastern Europe was held up during March because the policy was taking final shape.

But commerce officials revealed that since early April, a definite line has been drawn between what Russia can and cannot buy in U. S. markets, clearing the way for action on a huge backlog of license applications.

CALLING CARDS

"I would like to have some calling cards made. Do you think Mr. and Mrs. or separate cards would be more useful to people in our middle-class circumstances? Also tell me the proper use of both joint cards and 'Mrs.' only. I am a bride and a little confused on the 'card' idea."

Answer: Twenty-five to thirty-years ago, card leaving was a "must" for which reason every matron in almost any social set had both separate "Mrs." and joint cards, all set for any occasion demanding them. Card-leaving is now nearly an obsolete custom.

Naturally, cards are always used for certain necessary purposes. But today, even people of high social standing have little use for calling cards. Of course, cards are always used when sending wedding gifts, making the few required formal calls and they may be used as invitations by a hostess giving a luncheon, a tea, a bridge or other afternoon function. In this case, separate "Mrs." cards should be used. For all of these purposes "informals" may be substituted, if the hostess does not have separate cards.

If you intend to have engraved only one type of card, I suggest a "Mrs." rather than "Mr. and Mrs." since there are times when "Mr." is not to be included. When sending a joint gift, it is entirely correct to inclose the separate cards of man and wife, when they have no joint card.

Always remember that a wife's separate cards must have exactly the same name thereon as her husband. For instance, if his cards read "J. Willson Jones," hers must be "Mrs. J. Willson Jones," not "Mrs. John Willson Jones," although this latter arrangement is technically correct. They must be uniform in form.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

GARDEN NOTES

It is a little late to set out dormant roses but if there are still a few empty spots in your garden the nurseryman will be able to supply you with pot-grown plants. By the end of May tuberoses, summer hyacinths, tuberous begonias and dahlias may be planted at intervals of every two weeks until midsummer for succession of bloom.

Curly Scotch kale, which is becoming increasingly popular as a green, can be planted from June to mid-July.

Garden paths and walks should be put into shape before the soil becomes too dried out. Build up and even all edgings. Cinder blocks make a good base for any garden path.

Seed stalks of rhubarb should be removed as soon as they form, because seed bearing greatly weakens the plant.

Careless picking of peas and beans frequently disturbs the plant's roots. The vine should be held with the left hand while the pods are removed with the right hand.

The onion was one of the earliest plants cultivated and is believed to be a native of Western Asia.

Your Beef Roast shows why BOSCU is Richer Coffee!

The larger your beef-roast, the longer you must leave it in the oven to bring it to the peak of flavor. This simple, everyday fact is the key to new, richer Boscul Coffee's finer flavor.

1. Because all coffee beans are not the same size...

Coffee is blended from beans of various sizes. Other leading brands roast all size beans together. Result: Some over-roasted, some under-done.

2. Boscul 'custom-roasts' each size bean separately!

Of all leading coffees, only Boscul "custom-roasts" each size bean separately, before blending...to bring out their maximum flavor and richness.

3. Boscul is roast-controlled by the electric eye!

More Flavor per cup
More Cups per pound

As a further flavor safeguard, Boscul uses the Electric Eye to eliminate guesswork and assure that each size bean is roasted to the peak of flavor.

British Will Continue To Support Arabs

LONDON, May 19.—(INS)—Britain made known today its intention to continue sending arms and equipment to Arab states under treaty obligations.

A spokesman for the foreign office declared that Britain will continue to meet such obligations unless the United Nations decides such treaties are illegal.

He explained also that British officers will not be withdrawn from the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion in the absence of any ruling that the Arabs are acting illegally. The statement means that the British will keep on with its support not only of the Arab Legion but also of other Arab forces in which there are British officers and which receive British money and arms. Among these are the armies of Iraq and Saudi Arabia.

Scientists Return From Game Hunting

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—(INS)—Two scientists from the Academy of Natural Science have returned from a six-month game-hunting expedition in Africa.

William K. Carpenter, 28, a trustee of the academy, and Harold T. Green, 52, curator of exhibits, completed a 10,000 mile tour of the interior and returned with many rare animal specimens.

Carpenter, who has made three previous expeditions, said all the animals were bagged in French Equatorial Africa.

Green has made 12 expeditions and supervised the preparation of the skins.

Robert R. M. Carpenter, owner of the "Phillies" baseball club, is the brother of the young game-hunter and financed the trip along with his father, William Carpenter, Sr.

Post Office Supt. Inspects Route 7

Superintendent Edward McBride of Mahoningtown post office has been examining the territory of R.D. 7, out of that office this week. He finds the mail boxes between the office and through Mt. Jackson, in splendid condition. In other sections he found the boxes too low, a few badly needed painting, some needed names put on, and others should have the names made more legible. Mr. McBride believes that folks should have more pride in the condition of their mail receptacles.

Cut In Funds To Be Sought

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(INS)—An item-by-item fight against the senate appropriation committee's 102 million dollar boost in army civil functions funds loomed today as chances waned for a 200 million dollar blanket cut.

Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., is one of three sponsors of the motion for a 200 million dollar pruning of the 700½ million dollar bill for flood control and other rivers and harbors work. He said his group will oppose at least the new projects added by the senate committee.

Ferguson emphasized, however, that he is not conceding defeat. He insists that his group has "a good chance" to get the bill sent back to the committee with orders to trim off 200 million, which would reduce the funds to the level of the current year.

He said that if the blanket cut is defeated, the economy senators will lay their plans for item-by-item fights on the committee increases, which are subject to senate approval in the form of amendments.

Ferguson said that his group will object at least to those projects on which work would be started for the first time.

He said they will decide later whether to go further and knock out new projects which were added by the house.

Chief Of Cancer Control Is Named

HARRISBURG, May 19.—(INS)—Dr. Leverett D. Bristol, of Bethayres, has been appointed chief of the division of cancer control, Pennsylvania department of health.

In the $6,300-a-year post, Dr. Bristol will guide a $250,000 program authorized by the 1947 legislative to combat the disease. His appointment fills a vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Robert F. McNattin three months ago.

Dr. Bristol served as Maine's state health commissioner from 1917 to 1921 and as executive director of the Hospital Council of New York City, according to Health Secretary Norris W. Vaux. He also served as instructor of pathology and bacteriology at Syracuse University and later held positions as director of the North Dakota public health laboratory and professor of public health, University of Minnesota.

ARRANGING SPRING FLOWERS

Many of the spring flowers are in bloom, and already homemakers are becoming flower-arrangement minded. Daffodils, bluebells, violets, and tulips will add cheer to any room in the house. Later, there will be many more kinds of flowers for use in interesting arrangements.

Wild flowers will look well in nearly any room. Rough-textured flowers, such as zinnias, marigolds, and field daisies, which all bloom in the summer, are best used with homespun or for a bouquet on the cottage porch.

Lilies and roses are most pleasing when used with mahogany, fine upholstery, and smooth damask.

A tall panel of wall space may be used as a background for a tall flower arrangement. Low horizontal arrangements are best used against an oblong panel. Tall arrangements are usually used in halls or offsets in a room while the low containers lend themselves to decorating mantles and table arrangements.

The size of a flower arrangement and where it is used is as important as the type and shape of the background. A miniature arrangement on the dining room table is lost with the dishes around it on the wide expanse of linen. However, the same arrangement may be quite at home on a small table. Just as a miniature is too small for most places, so is a florist's basket of flowers likely to be too large for a living room.

Large baskets of flowers are best used in the church or an auditorium or for some special occasion in the home, such as a wedding, when you want a mass of color.

An arrangement can get lost against a figured wallpaper. The same arrangement might be attractive against a plain background. The delicately colored, fine-stemmed flowers cannot compete with much design and it is better to place a plain panel of paper or material behind this type or to choose flowers of sufficiently contrasting or strong colors to overshadow the design in the paper.

When planning a flower arrangement, consider how much of it, and from what angles it will be seen. A grouping of flowers that will be seen from every angle or be reflected in a mirror must look well from all sides. If it will be placed against a wall, attention will be forced only on the sides and front.

FROZEN SECTION

Nowadays we hear a lot and read a lot about the cancer problem. Some of the words used by the doctor are pretty hard for some people to understand. What is a "Frozen Section?" You may have a piece of wood. You take it to a carpenter to find out what kind of a tree it comes from. He may saw it or plane it so that he can see the grain of wood clearly. The doctors work in about the same way. They cut out a piece of a lump or a growth. They call the piece a section. You know how doctors like big words. The piece of flesh is soft and fragile and hard to cut. So it is frozen a little so that it can be cut nice and smooth. Then the doctor can see the "grain of the wood" just like the carpenter. That is what the doctors call a "Frozen Section." There are different kinds of tumors and cancers just like there are different kinds of trees. A carpenter can identify a tree by looking at the grain of a piece of wood. A doctor can identify a cancer by looking at a slice of it. Sometimes he uses a microscope so that he can see it better. When Mom wants to slice the butter nicely she chills it a little. Hoover Dam in Arizona and Nevada is higher than the Washington monument. About 92 cubic miles of water are stored behind it.

MUCH TOO ROUGH

DETROIT—Police agreed when William Nims, 44, a chauffeur told them he thought the street he was driving on was "pretty rough." The officers ordered him to pull his car off the railroad tracks just before a passenger train roared by, and charged him with reckless driving.

Drugless Health
REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil. NO harmful drugs. NO dope—is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments—highly recommended by the medical profession. FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hippocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from nutritional anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Rich Red Blood
MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 25 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headache troubles you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain of these ailments. Doctors send people to mineral springs to find cure or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Wonder Minerals
YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and open to drink and bathe in their miraculous waters. We have all heard of the wonderful springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thonon in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal youth and strength, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

GEO-MINERAL contains minerals found in the world's best springs. Watch the results a day or two after using it. The housecleaning it will do in your body, the poison it will bring out. When you see this, do not get alarmed—thank Nature who created GEO-MINERAL as a sign that the medicine is working on you, and realize its value. GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines thoroughly, relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. After these poisons are out of the system, and the kidneys purified, we begin to feel the arthritis, rheumatism leaving as Nature starts to complete the recovery.

100% Guaranteed!
WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money. REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be your remedy. TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Spring Concert Of Music Club Tuesday, May 25

New Castle Music club will present its annual spring concert to the public on Tuesday, May 25 in the First Methodist church at 8 p. m.

The program this spring, instead of the usual oratorio, is one of diversification. A secular concert with four groups of songs, ranging from the magnificent "Vesper Bells" (Kamerton Ostrow) by Rubenstein, the lovely tender "Summer Evening" by Palmyre, a group of spirituals, and in the lighter vein, "The Woeing" by Sieverking, "Twenty, Eighteen," English folk song, and "The Crispin Rose" by Cloukey. In all the chorus will sing 14 songs.

Chorus of 90 Voices
The chorus of 90 voices has been practicing diligently since March first. Mrs. William J. Caldwell, director, has chosen the music with great care, and as one of the most capable directors in the community, gives inspired leadership to the chorus, which grows more outstanding each year.

Mrs. Richard K. Allen, director and organist of the First Methodist church, and Edwin Lewis, director and organist of the First Methodist church, two of the most outstanding accompanists of the district, will accompany the chorus at the piano and organ.

It is with pride that the Music club chorus will present Anthony Casbero as violin soloist at their spring concert. His appearance is being anticipated with much pleasure of music lovers of this district.

Five Years In Army

Upon his graduation from New Castle senior high school, Mr. Casbero received the New Castle Music club award for outstanding achievement in music. He received the degree of bachelor of music from the Pittsburgh Musical Institute and has studied violin under Gaylord Yost, Max Fischel and Joseph Knitzer.

Since his return from five years' service in the United States army, he has again resumed his place in the musical life of this community.

It is with confidence that the Music club chorus presents its spring concert this year, offering a program different from any it has attempted for many years.

The public is cordially invited and there is no admission fee.

Banquet For V.F.W. Commander May 22

V.F.W. No. 315, Neshannock post, will give a banquet in honor of the departmental commander, Frank C. Hilton of Wonesworth, Pa., and his staff, at post headquarters at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, following which medals, pre-Pearl Harbor and Victory medals will be presented to those who have not received them. Members and wives are invited to participate. Reservations can be made now at post headquarters.

Sunday afternoon memorial service will be held at Castleview cemetery. Buses will operate between the post headquarters and the cemetery.

The annual memorial service, which will be open to the public, will be held at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, in the Cathedral.

Thank God For Muscle-Rub!

WRITES DR. ROBERT JORDAN, COLON, MICH.
Advices every sufferer from Rheumatic-Arthritic-Sciatic-Nouritic Pains to try Muscle-Rub.

Here's the true story of a man who took treatments, used all kind of remedies for his sciatic, neuritic pains without being helped in the slightest degree. Mr. Robert Jordan of Colon, Mich., suffered agony from pains in his hip-knee-calf of legs. The pain at times was so bad that he couldn't sit down. He tried several different treatments, many different medicines, all of which did him no good. He couldn't work. Life was misery for him.

Then one day he saw an advertisement of Muscle-Rub—the doctor's prescription—and in desperation bought a bottle. He used it as directed and in 3 days the pains were relieved and Mr. Jordan was back on the job. No wonder he advises every rheumatic sufferer to try Muscle-Rub for fast pain relief. The Importance of "Stepping Down"

Here is the story of a new principle of design that has rocked the industry and given Hudson unique beauty not possible in any other type of car.

Hudson has a new, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame", part of which is a rugged base structure that permits lowering floors and seats down within the frame. The sketches below illustrate this design problem and show how Hudson's recessed floor provides a low, streamlined silhouette, yet preserves head room.

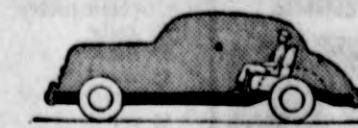

NEW HUDSON

Here is the low, low, gracefully streamlined Hudson—only five feet from ground to top. You can see how the streamlined roof comes down sharply over the rear-seat portion of the car, as compared to the other types of roof lines shown in sketches to the left. But Hudson floors are recessed down within the frame, seats are lowered, so you get more than ample head room.

The "step-down" principle requires years of engineering work, the development of new production techniques and equipment, and millions of dollars of highly specialized new plant investment. Perhaps this explains why Hudson alone offers this vital new design principle today.

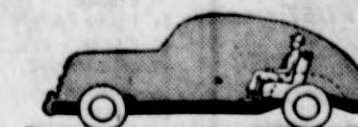

You'll probably expect the motor car that is the talk of the nation to offer you even more than beauty and comfort. And it does! Your nearby Hudson dealer will show you The Importance of "Stepping Down"—also its results in riding and driving ease, performance and safety. Hudson Motor Car Company, Detroit 14.

*Trade-mark and patent pending

OTHER CARS

The car above cannot be streamlined because the need for head room above the rear seat (which is built on top of a frame) makes it impossible to lower the roof.

OTHER CARS

Of course, it is possible to adopt free-flowing lines without recessing the floor, as sketched in the car above, but over-all height must be raised, and this destroys the possibility of a low silhouette, which is the mark of the modern motor car.

Prospectors Seek Uranium Deposits

Utah, Wyoming And Colorado
Mecca Of Prospectors Of Element Sought By Government

MOAB, Utah, May 19.—(INS)—Hardy 49'ers who battled the elements and each other in a head-long rush for precious gold would feel at home in the Rocky Mountain West today.

Prospecting fever—with a modern touch—is raging a m.p.a. through three states, Utah, Wyoming and Colorado. Probably one of the busiest centers of activity is Moab, a little town in southeastern Utah.

The scene has changed from the days of the gold rush. Instead of pack mules and hardback, the prospectors are equipped with jeeps and trucks, special rations, and modern scientific equipment.

And this time, the magic word is "Uranium"—key element in man's struggle to conquer the secrets of the atom.

Staking Claims A Year Or More
Foresighted men—and women—have been staking claims in the three states for a year or more.

A recent announcement by the Atomic Energy Commission that a definite buying program and control policy will be established encouraged renewed activity. Uranium prospectors now are swarming over areas of known deposits in ever-increasing numbers.

Miners have been registering claims for the prized element by the hundreds at the county recorder's office in Moab. Apparently, that's uranium in them thar hills.

FUTILE CHISOX MAY SET RECORD FOR GAMES LOST

CHICAGO, May 19.—(INS)—The Chicago White Sox, who have used 61 pitchers in 21 games, of which they have won four, today were traveling at a clip which, if maintained, will obliterate the 32-year-old American league record for futility.

The old Philadelphia Athletics may have thought themselves some pumpkins when they lost the gay total of 117 games during the 1916 season, but keep your eye on the white stockings.

Should they continue their present pace of 17 losses in 21 games, their final finish will be 29 victories and 125 defeats for the 154-game season.

ACT IN REVERSE
BRIDGEWATER, Mass.—To speed up a housing project, firemen burned down a Bridgewater home. The abandoned structure stood in the way of a road being built into the new Rowayton park development.

Among the vessels built by his firm was the "John Randolph," said to have been the first iron vessel used in American waters, and the "Nemesis," first vessel equipped with guns.

Deplores Excessive Christmas Spending

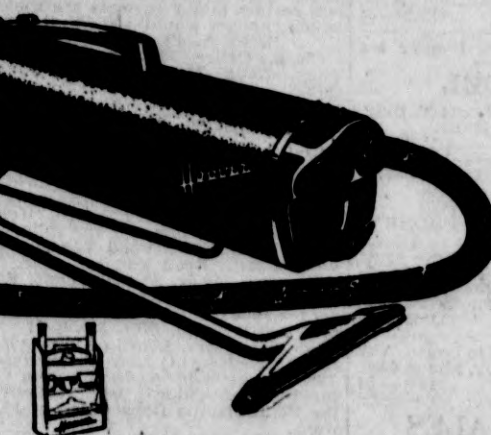

SCRANTON, Pa., May 18.—(INS)—Commercialization of Christmas observance was under fire today from William M. Lennox, of Philadelphia, state deputy commander of the Knights of Columbus in Pennsylvania.
During the annual convention at Scranton, he urged delegates to return to their home councils and work out programs that would "revive the spiritual significance of the day."
Delegates selected York as the site of the 1949 convention.

Question Negro In Death Of Two

LANCASTER, Pa., May 19.—(INS)—George Milburn, 42, Lancaster negro, was being held today for questioning at Lancaster in connection with the shotgun slaying of his wife, Viola, 29, and Conrad Bucher, 68, of Quarryville.
The bodies were found by Leon Harris in the Milburn house near Drumore, along Fishing creek in the hills slanting down to the Susquehanna river in southern Lancaster county last night.
Milburn, a former employee of the Lancaster hospital, was taken into custody shortly before midnight by police.
Police said Bucher, a former neighbor, was found on the first floor of the house, his face shattered by a shotgun blast. The woman was discovered in an upstairs room with a gaping hole in her back, according to police.

When the Military Academy at West Point was "officially" opened in 1802 there were 10 cadets present for instruction.
